ANNUAL MEETING OF SCHOOL BOARD

THE ANNUAL REPORT IS READ AND ADOPTED—FOUR DIRECTORS PRESENT—DR. BALL ELECTED DIRECTOR.

The annual meeting of the school board was held last evening. Besides Professor Clarke there were three directors present, namely: Mr. Higgins, Mr. Holmes, and Judge Taylor. The annual report which is appended, was read and adopted, after which the meeting was adjourned.

Following the annual meeting a board meeting was held at which the four directors above named were present and Mr. Welch. There were also four teachers in attendance, and the matter of salaries was discussed.

Subsequently, the votes cast in the election for school director were canvassed. There were 44 votes cast and all were for Dr. T. L. Ball. Dr. Ball was therefore declared elected and the clerk was instructed to notify him. June the 27th was the date set for all teachers' contracts to be signed. All those remaining unsigned at that date will be considered vacant. Miss Constable was elected a teacher, and this concluded the business of the meeting. JUNE CIRCUIT COURT CONVENES JAIL BREAKER AND FORGER GETS TWO AND HALF YEARS—PLEADS FOR CLEMENCY—NUMBER OF CIVIL CASES DISPOSED OF.

Yesterday afternoon the June term of the Circuit Court was convened by Judge Melbride and the following cases were disposed of:

John Hahn vs. National Bank et al., including stockholders of Warrenton Lumber Company, demurrer of defense sustained, injunction dissolved, and plaintiff allowed ten days in which to amend complaint. George B. Coe et al. vs. A. H. Church, sale confirmed H. E. Thompson vs. S. L. Irish, suit went by default. C. L. Diven vs. C. A. Hayden, suit went by default. L. Lebeck vs. C. A. Davis et al., settled and dismissed. F. M. Warren vs. Julia E. Warren, referred to court stenographer to take evidence. Eastern Investment Co. vs. Wisconsin Investment Co., suit dismissed. The same vs. A. H. Eager, case dismissed. Eva L. Endicott vs. Louis L. Endicott, default. Henry et al. vs. City of Astoria, hearing postponed to June 18. T. K. Johnson vs. B. A. Seaborg, hearing of trial on June 24. C. C. Clarke vs. R. A. Price, hearing set for June 18. Emma S. Peterson vs. John S. Peterson, referred to court stenographer to take evidence. Frank A. Kinney vs. Maude E. Kinney, divorce granted. Ed. S. Rounslow vs. P. Peterson, case settled and dismissed. A. R. Roberti vs. C. C. Utzinger, case dismissed. J. C. Duncan vs. Julius Wilber, case settled and dismissed.

Charles P. Duke, who made the ineffectual jail break, the week before last, was arraigned on a charge of uttering a forged check for $37. He pleaded guilty. Duke made an impassioned appeal to the court and spoke well in his own defense. He said that he was drunk at the time; that he had gone hatless, coatless and with one shoe off to the back to get a check that in that condition and shouting drunk he had returned to the bar where he had been drinking and obtained the money. He says the bartender knew him and practically that he was particeps criminis in giving a man in his condition money on a check. He also added he had returned most of the money. He said that he had been prompted to try to make his escape by the other prisoners, who were old hands, and by the many opportunities that were offered him. And he begged for the leniency of the court. With regard to the latter part of the appeal referring to his attempted escape the Judge said that it was the duty of the officers to hold their prisoners and that it was the duty of the prisoner to get away if he could. Duke was sentenced to 2 1/2 years in the state penitentiary; he will probably be taken there tonight. In the case of James Wilhelm, a Greek, who was also arraigned and pleaded guilty, charged with an assault and attempt to kill, the court appointed Attorney F. D. Winton to look into the case. On his pleading guilty, the district attorney had amended the complaint against Wilhelm to one of assault only, but on the court order being made, he said he would abide by the original complaint. The latter case will be tried tomorrow. In the case of Parker vs. Parker, man and wife, who had not lived together for four years, a decree was granted to the husband.

A GOOD LESSON FOR YOUNG MEN TO STUDY.

On page 3 of this issue appears the advertisement of the Columbia Trust Company in which they lay before the young men of our city a path which if they have foresight enough to follow, means success for them.

For an example, Mr. Clark of that company, recites an instance which came to him last Saturday while in Portland.

He was standing on the street when a young fellow who had been a school mate of his and a boyhood friend, came up to him with a broad smile on his face and said: "Hello, Frank, how are you making it? I'm the happiest fellow in Portland!" Mr. Clark then asked him why he was so happy and he said: "It is the fault of one of you so-called 'detestable' real estate' men. A fellow came to me about three years ago to sell me some lots—Holladay Park at that time. Holladay Park was considered away out in the country and people who bought lots away out then were laughed at. Well, this fellow kept after me and liked to have drove me crazy trying to sell me those lots at $456 each, $150 down and $30 per month on three. Well, I talked the matter over with my folks and they advised me not to buy on account of the location, so when the fellow came again I told him I didn't think I'd buy them. But he didn't let me down at that and to make a long story short I finally bought them to get rid of him. I was sore at myself and him too for some time afterward, because I was working in a machine shop at $3 per day and it kept me guessing to pay that $30 per month. But in about one year I saw that things were looking pretty good and I became encouraged and stayed with it. By working to save that $30 per month I saved more and today I have $550 in the bank; have finished paying for my lots
